

Name _____

Deep Feelings

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What emotions does The Giving Tree create for many readers?
 - a) Joy and excitement
 - b) Love and sadness
 - c) Fear and anger
 - d) Boredom and confusion

2. Why do some people feel frustrated when reading The Giving Tree?
 - a) The tree never helps the boy.
 - b) The boy takes everything from the tree but never gives back.
 - c) The boy refuses to talk to the tree.
 - d) The tree grows back after being cut down.

3. How does the author make the story emotional?
 - a) By using complex words and long descriptions
 - b) By including a happy ending where the tree regrows
 - c) By keeping the words simple and focusing on the relationship
 - d) By making the boy apologize to the tree at the end

4. Why do people of all ages connect with the story?
 - a) It has a message about love, giving, and appreciation that relates to real life.
 - b) It is a story about adventure and excitement.
 - c) The characters are funny and entertaining.
 - d) It is written only for young children.

5. What is one way to view the tree's happiness at the end?
 - a) As a true happiness that comes from giving
 - b) As sadness, because the tree has nothing left
 - c) As a sign that trees do not have emotions
 - d) Both a and b, depending on how the reader interprets the story

