

Name _____

Deer Dining: Nature's Gentle Plant Eaters

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What type of food do deer eat?
 - a) Meat and fish
 - b) Grasses, leaves, fruits, and twigs
 - c) Insects and worms
 - d) Berries only

2. Why do deer eat more nuts and acorns in the autumn?
 - a) To build fat for winter
 - b) Because they can't find grass
 - c) To help plants grow faster
 - d) Because they stop eating leaves

3. How do deer find food in winter?
 - a) They dig with their hooves
 - b) They use their sense of smell
 - c) They climb trees
 - d) They stop eating

4. Why do deer help plants grow?
 - a) They eat insects that harm plants
 - b) They carry seeds on their fur
 - c) They spread seeds through their waste
 - d) They water plants with their hooves

5. What kind of teeth do deer have for eating plants?
 - a) Sharp teeth for chewing meat
 - b) Curved teeth for biting nuts
 - c) Pointy teeth for catching fish
 - d) Flat teeth for grinding plants

