

Name _____

Deer Dining: Nature's Gentle Plant Eaters

Short Answer Key

1. Deer are called herbivores because they eat only plants.
2. Deer eat bark, twigs, and dried leaves during winter.
3. Deer help plants grow by spreading seeds in their waste.
4. Deer need to eat a lot to stay healthy and get enough nutrients.
5. Deer use their flat teeth to grind plants for easier digestion.

