

Name _____

Understanding the Daily Habits of Deer

Short Answer Key

1. Being crepuscular means being most active at dawn and dusk.
2. Deer stay safe by hiding in tall grass and using their strong senses.
3. Living in herds helps deer stay safe by alerting each other to danger.
4. Fawns learn how to find food and stay safe from their mothers.
5. Bucks become more aggressive and compete for mates during the breeding season.

