

Name _____

How Deer Communicate in the Wild

Short Answer Key

1. Deer use sound by grunting softly or snorting loudly to share messages.
2. Deer stomp their hooves to scare predators and warn other deer.
3. Scent glands release smells that mark territory or show presence.
4. A raised tail signals danger and warns other deer.
5. Bucks rub their antlers to mark territory and leave scent.

