

Name _____

Discovering Deer: Nature's Gentle Travelers

Short Answer Key

1. A baby deer is called a fawn.
2. Antlers fall off each year so they can grow back bigger.
3. Deer use their strong hearing, sense of smell, and fast running to escape danger.
4. Deer use antlers to fight other male deer during the mating season.
5. Deer help plants grow by spreading seeds in their waste.

