

Name _____

Defensive Warriors: Unveiling American Football's Defensive Positions

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Compare and contrast the roles of a defensive tackle and a defensive end in American football. How are their responsibilities similar, and how do they differ?
2. Imagine you are a cornerback facing a fast and agile wide receiver. Describe the techniques and strategies you would use to cover the receiver effectively.
3. Discuss the importance of communication among defensive players in American football. How does effective communication help the defense succeed?
4. How can defensive players adapt to different offensive strategies used by the opposing team to maintain a strong defense and prevent the opponent from scoring?

