

Name _____

Dancing with Colors: The Life and Art of Edgar Degas

Short Answer Key

1. (Any one of the famous ballet-themed paintings by Degas, such as "The Dance Class" or "The Little Fourteen-Year-Old Dancer.")
2. (Degas believed that an artist should not merely replicate reality but should capture the emotion and mood of a scene.)
3. (Degas contributed to the Impressionist movement through his use of unusual perspectives, cropping, and his ability to capture the effects of light on objects.)
4. (Edgar Degas faced challenges with his eyesight, which made it difficult for him to paint.)
5. (Edgar Degas passed away on September 27, 1917, in Paris, France.)

