

Name _____

Unlocking the Government of Bangladesh: A Journey of Democracy

Short Answer Key

1. The President serves as the ceremonial head of state, while the Prime Minister is the head of government responsible for leading the administration.
2. Local government in Bangladesh serves to govern and make decisions at the grassroots level, with representatives such as mayors and union council chairmen elected by the local population.
3. Political parties in Bangladesh participate in the democratic process by competing in elections to win seats in the Jatiya Sangsad and form the government.
4. The Supreme Court in Bangladesh is responsible for interpreting and upholding the law, ensuring justice is served, and safeguarding the rule of law.
5. Non-governmental organizations (NGOs) in Bangladesh play a crucial role in advocating for human rights, social justice, and environmental sustainability through their various initiatives and campaigns.

