

Name _____

The Detective's Dilemma

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is Detective Sarah Williams investigating in the story?
 - A) Mysterious disappearances
 - B) A series of burglaries
 - C) A car accident
 - D) A missing pet

2. Why does Detective Sarah Williams feel a connection to the prime suspect, Mark?
 - A) Because they are childhood friends
 - B) Because Mark is her nephew
 - C) Because of their similar troubled pasts
 - D) Because Mark is her brother

3. What does Sarah discover while reviewing the evidence in the case?
 - A) Evidence that implicates Mark as the culprit
 - B) Evidence that clears Mark of any wrongdoing
 - C) Evidence that points to another person as the real culprit
 - D) Evidence that there is no burglary

4. Why does Sarah choose to reveal the new evidence?
 - A) To protect Mark from the police
 - B) To ensure that another person faces justice
 - C) To keep Mark in jail
 - D) To become a detective

5. What is the main moral dilemma that Sarah faces in the story?
 - A) Whether to become a police officer
 - B) Whether to release Mark or keep him in jail
 - C) Whether to visit Mark in jail
 - D) Whether to become friends with Mark

