

Name _____

The Detective's Dilemma

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. What do you think motivated Detective Sarah Williams to visit Mark frequently and become emotionally attached to him during the investigation? How did this emotional attachment affect her decision-making?
2. In the story, Detective Sarah faces a difficult moral dilemma. What values or principles do you think guided her decision to reveal the new evidence despite her personal feelings for Mark?
3. How does "The Detective's Dilemma" highlight the challenges and ethical responsibilities that law enforcement officers may face in their pursuit of justice? What lessons can be learned from Sarah's decision in this story?
4. Have you ever had to make a difficult decision where personal feelings conflicted with your sense of justice or responsibility? If so, how did you approach that decision, and what were the outcomes?

