Name _____

The Time-Traveling Diary

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. If you had a time-traveling diary like the one in the story, which historical era or event would you want to visit, and why?

2. How would you feel if you could leave messages for someone in the past, as the narrator does in the story? What would you say?

3. What challenges or surprises do you think the narrator might encounter during their time-traveling adventures?

4. If you could share a message with someone from the past, who would it be, and what would you want them to know about the present?

© ReadingDuck.com