

Name _____

The Time-Traveling Diary

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Answers may vary, but students might choose to visit the Renaissance period to witness the flourishing of art and science or the American Civil Rights Movement to experience a significant moment in social change.
2. Students may express feelings of excitement and a desire to share knowledge or advice with someone from the past, such as encouraging them to pursue their dreams or warning them about future challenges.
3. Challenges could include adapting to different time periods, understanding historical contexts, and navigating unexpected situations, while surprises might involve making new friends or experiencing pivotal historical events.
4. Students might choose a historical figure, a family member from the past, or someone who made a significant impact on society and express what they would want them to know about the present, such as technological advancements or societal changes.

