

Name _____

Respect for Differences

Multiple-Choice Questions

1. What is the main idea of the passage?
 - A. Everyone should celebrate the same holidays.
 - B. Respecting differences helps us learn from one another.
 - C. People with differences should be avoided.
 - D. Respecting differences is only important in school.
2. Why does the passage suggest asking respectful questions?
 - A. To make fun of others.
 - B. To show off your knowledge.
 - C. To ignore what makes others unique.
 - D. To learn and understand someone's differences.
3. What should you do if you see someone being teased?
 - A. Ignore the situation.
 - B. Tease them too.
 - C. Stand up for them or tell an adult.
 - D. Laugh at them quietly.
4. Why are differences important, according to the passage?
 - A. They make the world more colorful and exciting.
 - B. They make people argue more.
 - C. They make friendships harder.
 - D. They should be hidden from others.
5. What is an example of showing respect for differences?
 - A. Celebrating someone's unique tradition.
 - B. Ignoring someone who looks different.
 - C. Pretending differences don't exist.
 - D. Teasing someone for their accent.

