

Name _____

Different Perspectives

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How does Fern view Wilbur?
  - a) As just another farm animal
  - b) As a friend with feelings
  - c) As a pet she wants to sell
  - d) As an animal she is afraid of

2. What is Mr. Zuckerman's first opinion about Wilbur?
  - a) He believes Wilbur is special and must be protected.
  - b) He thinks Wilbur should live in Fern's house.
  - c) He sees Wilbur as a farm animal meant to be food.
  - d) He wants to set Wilbur free in the wild.

3. How do the words in Charlotte's web change Mr. Zuckerman's view of Wilbur?
  - a) He decides Wilbur should live because he seems special.
  - b) He becomes afraid of Wilbur.
  - c) He still plans to butcher Wilbur.
  - d) He does not care about the web at all.

4. What do most humans in the story fail to realize?
  - a) That pigs are more important than spiders
  - b) That Charlotte is the real reason Wilbur is seen as special
  - c) That Templeton is the smartest animal on the farm
  - d) That Fern is the only person who understands animals

5. What lesson does Charlotte's Web teach about how humans view animals?
  - a) Pigs and spiders should never live on farms.
  - b) Animals do not have feelings or intelligence.
  - c) All farmers care about their animals equally.
  - d) Different perspectives can shape how animals are treated.