

Name _____

Different Perspectives

Short Answer Key

1. Fern saves Wilbur by convincing her father not to kill him and continues to care for him.
2. Mr. Zuckerman changes his view after seeing the words in Charlotte's web, which make him believe Wilbur is unique.
3. The other humans are amazed by the words in the web but do not understand how they got there.
4. Most people assume the words in the web are a miracle and do not realize Charlotte's intelligence made it happen.
5. The novel suggests that humans often see animals as useful rather than as creatures with feelings and intelligence.

