Different Perspectives

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

(Answers may vary, but here are possible responses.)

1. If Fern had not saved Wilbur, he would have been killed, and the story would have been very different.
2. Mr. Zuckerman may not truly believe Wilbur is special, but he enjoys the attention and decides to keep Wilbur alive.
3. Humans often overlook animal intelligence because they assume animals only act on instinct.
4. If I were a farmer, I would try to care for my animals and treat them kindly, even if they were raised for food.
