

Name _____

Different but Brave

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How did Stanley's classmates react to his flatness?
  - a) They all wanted to be flat like him.
  - b) They were kind and helpful to him.
  - c) They ignored him completely.
  - d) Some teased him and called him names.

2. How did Stanley use his flatness to help others?
  - a) He stayed home to avoid trouble.
  - b) He hid from people so they wouldn't see him.
  - c) He retrieved his mother's lost ring and helped his father move things.
  - d) He told everyone his flatness was a secret.

3. What was Stanley's biggest adventure?
  - a) He played in a football game.
  - b) He flew across the world in an envelope.
  - c) He caught art thieves by disguising himself as a painting.
  - d) He ran away to find other flat people.

4. How did Stanley feel after catching the thieves?
  - a) Embarrassed because people paid too much attention to him.
  - b) Proud that his difference helped him do something important.
  - c) Angry because he didn't want to be different.
  - d) Sad because he wanted to be normal again.

5. What did Stanley learn by the end of the story?
  - a) Being different can have advantages.
  - b) It is better to be like everyone else.
  - c) People will never accept those who are different.
  - d) There is no way to use differences in a positive way.

