

Name _____

Different but Brave

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Have you ever felt different from others? How did people react, and how did it make you feel?
2. Why do you think some people tease others who are different, while others admire their uniqueness?
3. If you were in Stanley's place, how would you have handled the teasing from classmates?
4. What do you think makes someone special? Is it being like everyone else or having something unique about them?

