

Name _____

Different but Brave

Short Answer Key

1. Stanley's parents were surprised but supportive, and his brother Arthur thought it was fun at first.
2. He felt sad because he was still the same person, but people treated him differently just because of his appearance.
3. He retrieved his mother's lost ring from the drain and helped his father move things by squeezing into small spaces.
4. At first, he felt embarrassed and wished he was normal, but later he saw how his difference allowed him to help others.
5. The story teaches that being different isn't bad—everyone has strengths that make them special.

