

Name _____

The Storyteller's Dilemma

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Discuss the concept of free will and destiny as explored in "The Storyteller's Dilemma." How do the characters' dilemmas reflect these themes, and how do they relate to Max's predicament?
2. Max's presence in the story blurs the line between fiction and reality. How does this blur challenge traditional storytelling conventions, and what does it suggest about the malleability of narrative?
3. Explore the idea of storytelling as a powerful force in "The Storyteller's Dilemma." How does the story emphasize the impact of storytelling on characters and their sense of identity?
4. Consider the role of metafiction in the story. How does the metafictional element add depth to the narrative and engage readers in a unique way?

