

Name _____

Voyage of Dreams and Disaster

Short-Answer Answer Key

1. The Titanic was called "unsinkable" because of its strong steel structure and advanced safety features.
2. Third-class passengers lived in simple rooms on the lower decks with basic amenities.
3. The crew worked to maintain the ship, serve passengers, and ensure smooth operations.
4. The Titanic hit an iceberg, which caused it to sink.
5. It is remembered for its tragic loss of life and the safety lessons it inspired.

