

Name _____

The Invisible Pathways: Understanding How Infectious Diseases Spread

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How do infectious diseases spread through direct contact?
  - A) By touching contaminated objects
  - B) Through the air via droplets
  - C) By sexual contact or kissing
  - D) Through the bites of vectors

2. What is an example of an infectious disease transmitted through indirect contact?
  - A) Tuberculosis
  - B) Malaria
  - C) Influenza
  - D) Salmonellosis

3. How are airborne infectious diseases transmitted?
  - A) Through contaminated food and water
  - B) By touching contaminated surfaces
  - C) Through the bites of vectors
  - D) Via droplets expelled when an infected person coughs or sneezes

4. Which of the following is a vector-borne disease?
  - A) Influenza
  - B) Lyme disease
  - C) Hepatitis A
  - D) Cholera

5. What preventive measure can help reduce the transmission of vector-borne diseases?
  - A) Using insect repellent
  - B) Washing hands frequently
  - C) Covering coughs and sneezes
  - D) Avoiding close contact with sick individuals

