

Name _____

Exploring Endocrine Disorders: When Hormones Go Haywire

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What are endocrine disorders?
 - a) Disorders of the immune system
 - b) Disorders of the messaging system in our body
 - c) Disorders of the nervous system
 - d) Disorders of the digestive system

2. Which glands release hormones into our bloodstream?
 - a) Muscles
 - b) Bones
 - c) Endocrine glands
 - d) Skin glands

3. What happens in diabetes?
 - a) The pancreas produces too much insulin
 - b) The pancreas doesn't produce enough insulin
 - c) The thyroid gland produces too much hormone
 - d) The thyroid gland doesn't produce enough hormone

4. What is one symptom of hypothyroidism?
 - a) Weight loss
 - b) Feeling hot all the time
 - c) Feeling cold all the time
 - d) Increased energy

5. Why is it important to understand endocrine disorders?
 - a) Because they only affect one aspect of health
 - b) Because they can't be treated
 - c) Because they can affect many aspects of health
 - d) Because they only affect adults

