

Name _____

Fungi Unveiled: Exploring Their Diverse Habitats

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Where are fungi commonly found in soil?
 - a) In the air
 - b) Attached to rocks
 - c) Forming networks of mycelium
 - d) On plant leaves

2. What role do fungi play in aquatic environments?
 - a) Breaking down organic matter
 - b) Photosynthesis
 - c) Hunting prey
 - d) Producing oxygen

3. In what human-made habitat can fungi be found?
 - a) Underground caves
 - b) Buildings
 - c) Space stations
 - d) Airplanes

4. How do fungi contribute to nutrient cycling in forests?
 - a) By producing oxygen
 - b) By hunting prey
 - c) By attaching to rocks
 - d) By forming mycelium networks

5. What are examples of decaying organic matter where fungi are found?
 - a) Fresh flowers
 - b) Fallen leaves
 - c) Living animals
 - d) Plastic bottles

