

Name _____

The Divine Encounters: Greek Gods and Their Interaction with Humans

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How did the Greek gods and goddesses interact with humans?
 - a) They never interacted with humans.
 - b) They only interacted with kings and queens.
 - c) They often appeared to humans and influenced their lives.
 - d) They communicated solely through written messages.

2. What role did Athena play in the lives of heroes like Odysseus?
 - a) She granted them immortality.
 - b) She offered them physical strength.
 - c) She provided guidance and intelligence.
 - d) She caused their downfall.

3. Why did cities and regions often have patron gods or goddesses?
 - a) It was a tradition with no real significance.
 - b) It helped the gods gain more power.
 - c) They believed the deities protected and provided for them.
 - d) It was imposed by foreign rulers.

4. What lesson does the myth of Prometheus teach?
 - a) The importance of challenging divine authority.
 - b) The consequences of stealing fire from the gods.
 - c) The benefits of arrogance and defiance.
 - d) The insignificance of humanity.

5. Who was known for delivering prophetic messages from the gods?
 - a) Priests
 - b) Soldiers
 - c) Oracles
 - d) Farmers

