

Name _____

Divorce and Co-Parenting

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why did Karen and Mark get a divorce?
 - a) They no longer loved each other.
 - b) They had too many differences and conflicts.
 - c) They wanted to move to separate cities.
 - d) They wanted to be single.

2. What were some of the challenges Karen faced after the divorce?
 - a) Finding a new partner
 - b) Balancing her job and emotional toll of the divorce
 - c) Losing her job
 - d) Moving to a new apartment

3. Why did Lily and Max feel torn between their parents?
 - a) They didn't love their parents.
 - b) They missed having both parents at home.
 - c) They preferred one parent over the other.
 - d) They wanted to live with their grandparents.

4. How did Karen and Mark eventually decide to handle an important school event for Lily and Max?
 - a) They both attended separately.
 - b) They didn't attend.
 - c) They argued and didn't attend.
 - d) They attended together.

5. What did Karen and Mark learn through their co-parenting journey?
 - a) That they should never communicate with each other.
 - b) That their personal growth was essential for successful co-parenting.
 - c) That they should prioritize their careers over their children.
 - d) That they should remarry and have more children.

