

Name _____

Doubles Badminton: Teamwork and Coordination on the Court

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the primary difference between singles and doubles badminton?

- a) In singles, the court is larger.
- b) In doubles, two players work as a team.
- c) In singles, there is only one player.
- d) In doubles, players serve from the back of the court.

2. Why is communication essential in doubles badminton?

- a) To distract opponents
- b) To prevent your partner from making mistakes
- c) To coordinate movement and shots with your partner
- d) To confuse the referee

3. What is the typical court positioning in a doubles badminton team?

- a) Both players stay at the net.
- b) Both players stay at the back of the court.
- c) One player takes the front court, and the other covers the back court.
- d) One player serves, and the other receives at the back.

4. Why is anticipation important in doubles badminton?

- a) To communicate with the referee
- b) To predict where the shuttlecock will be hit
- c) To distract the opponents
- d) To call out the score to the audience

5. What is the purpose of using deception in doubles badminton?

- a) To confuse the opponent's partner
- b) To catch opponents off guard and create openings
- c) To communicate with your own partner
- d) To show off your skills to the audience

