

Name _____

Doubles Tennis Demystified: Teamwork on the Court

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is one significant difference between singles and doubles tennis?
  - a) The size of the court
  - b) The number of players on each team
  - c) The type of rackets used
  - d) The serving rules

2. Which of the following is NOT a common doubles tennis formation?
  - a) One-up, one-back
  - b) Both-up
  - c) Both-back
  - d) One-at-net

3. Why is communication important in doubles tennis?
  - a) To confuse opponents
  - b) To avoid talking to each other
  - c) To coordinate movements and strategize
  - d) To play mind games with the opponents

4. What is "poaching" in doubles tennis?
  - a) Using high, arcing shots to force opponents away from the net
  - b) Changing positions at specific moments during a point
  - c) Intercepting the opponent's shot by crossing over to the other side of the court
  - d) Maintaining composure during pressure situations

5. What is the key to successful net play in doubles tennis?
  - a) Serving with maximum power
  - b) Controlling the baseline
  - c) Intercepting shots and reacting quickly
  - d) Lobbing the ball over opponents' heads

