

Name _____

How Dragonflies Talk Without Words

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How do dragonflies warn other males to stay out of their territory?
 - A. By flying in circles or chasing intruders
 - B. By making loud buzzing sounds
 - C. By flashing their colors
 - D. By shaking their wings

2. What do male dragonflies use their bright colors for?
 - A. To scare predators
 - B. To blend into their surroundings
 - C. To attract females
 - D. To find food

3. How do dragonflies avoid colliding while hunting?
 - A. They stay in different parts of the water.
 - B. They communicate with buzzing sounds.
 - C. They use their excellent eyesight to watch each other's movements.
 - D. They hunt at different times.

4. What does territorial behavior mean for dragonflies?
 - A. They live in large groups.
 - B. They protect their favorite spots from other males.
 - C. They share their space with other males.
 - D. They work together to guard eggs.

5. What is one reason dragonflies don't need sounds to communicate?
 - A. They can use scents instead.
 - B. They don't need to communicate at all.
 - C. They make gestures with their legs.
 - D. They have sharp eyesight and use movements.

