

Name _____

Dragonflies: Nature's Balancing Act

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What do dragonflies eat to control pest populations?
  - A. Grass and plants
  - B. Mosquitoes, flies, and gnats
  - C. Berries and seeds
  - D. Worms and snails

2. How do dragonflies contribute to the food chain?
  - A. They spread pollen to flowers.
  - B. They dig tunnels for small creatures to live in.
  - C. They eat pests and are food for other animals.
  - D. They use their wings to protect other insects.

3. What makes dragonflies good indicators of environmental health?
  - A. They only live in sunny areas.
  - B. They can live anywhere, even without water.
  - C. They avoid polluted places by flying higher.
  - D. They depend on clean water to survive.

4. What animals eat dragonflies?
  - A. Frogs, birds, fish, and spiders
  - B. Butterflies, bees, and ants
  - C. Snakes, turtles, and rabbits
  - D. Bats, owls, and deer

5. Why are dragonflies studied by scientists?
  - A. To learn how to mimic their flying skills
  - B. To understand their colorful wings
  - C. To find out what they eat
  - D. To protect them from predators

