

Name _____

City of Dreams: Jay's Journey

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Jay discovers "The Alley Cats" art collective when he stumbles upon their graffiti-covered entrance in a local park. What draws him to it is the vibrant and creative energy that seems to emanate from the wall, inviting him to be a part of something bigger than himself.
2. Jay and "The Alley Cats" bring a transformation to their neighborhood by turning neglected spaces into urban art and performance hubs. Abandoned buildings become vibrant canvases, and empty lots turn into stages for awe-inspiring performances. They infuse life and creativity into the forgotten parts of the city.
3. Jay and "The Alley Cats" face challenges such as opposition from city authorities who don't understand the value of their art, financial constraints, and the constant need to find new spaces to transform. They also deal with personal struggles, like maintaining their friendships and balancing their passion with the demands of everyday life.
4. The art and creativity of "The Alley Cats" impact the lives of the people in their neighborhood by bringing beauty, inspiration, and a sense of community to the otherwise overlooked areas. They create a sense of pride and unity among the residents, and their performances become a source of joy and entertainment.

