

Name _____

The Boy Who Drew Cats

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why did Taro's family send him to a Buddhist temple?
  - a) To become a farmer
  - b) To become a priest's apprentice
  - c) To learn martial arts
  - d) To study calligraphy

2. What was Taro's unusual passion and hobby?
  - a) Fishing
  - b) Drawing cats
  - c) Playing outdoors
  - d) Meditating

3. How did Taro use his artistic talent to confront the monstrous cat yokai?
  - a) He painted a circle of cats on the temple walls.
  - b) He sculpted a statue of a powerful deity.
  - c) He drew a kotodama on the temple floor.
  - d) He wrote a letter to the temple's head monk.

4. What happened to the monstrous cat yokai when Taro completed his drawing?
  - a) It attacked Taro.
  - b) It vanished into thin air.
  - c) It became friendly and left peacefully.
  - d) It knocked over the temple's statues.

5. How did the monks and villagers react to Taro's actions at the temple?
  - a) They banished him from the village.
  - b) They ignored him and continued their daily routines.
  - c) They embraced his talent and admired his bravery.
  - d) They became jealous and tried to imitate his artwork.

