

Name _____

Drinking and Driving: A Dangerous Mix

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What does alcohol impair when someone is driving under its influence?
 - a) Reaction time and coordination
 - b) Ability to see in the dark
 - c) Memory and concentration
 - d) Sense of direction

2. What is the legal limit for blood alcohol concentration (BAC) while driving in the United States?
 - a) There is no legal limit
 - b) Any detectable amount of alcohol is allowed
 - c) It varies by state, but typically around 0.08%
 - d) 1.0% BAC

3. What are some potential legal penalties for driving under the influence?
 - a) A warning and a small fine
 - b) Mandatory alcohol education programs
 - c) Community service and free driving lessons
 - d) A free pass for the first offense

4. When do drunk driving accidents tend to happen more frequently?
 - a) On weekdays
 - b) During mornings
 - c) On weekends and holidays
 - d) During the afternoon rush hour

5. What is one step individuals can take to prevent drunk driving, as mentioned in the passage?
 - a) Encouraging friends to drink more
 - b) Ignoring the issue and hoping for the best
 - c) Designating a sober driver before going out
 - d) Avoiding public transportation

