

Name _____

Drinking and Driving: A Dangerous Mix

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Explain the potential consequences of driving under the influence of alcohol, including the dangers it poses to the driver and others on the road. Provide examples of legal penalties.
2. Discuss the role of statistics in understanding the problem of drunk driving. Why is it essential to have accurate data on alcohol-impaired driving accidents?
3. Describe at least two steps individuals can take to prevent drunk driving, emphasizing the importance of responsible choices and planning ahead.
4. Explain why alcohol impairs a driver's ability to make safe decisions on the road. How does impairment affect judgment, coordination, and reaction time?

