

Name _____

The Dynamic Duo: How the House and Senate Work Together to Pass a Bill

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the role of committees in the legislative process?
 - a) To introduce bills
 - b) To conduct floor debates
 - c) To gather expert opinions and review bills
 - d) To sign bills into law

2. What happens if a bill is vetoed by the President?
 - a) It becomes a law automatically.
 - b) It goes back to Congress for potential override.
 - c) The bill is sent to the Supreme Court.
 - d) The President can no longer veto bills.

3. Why do members of both the House and the Senate participate in the floor debate?
 - a) To introduce new bills
 - b) To raise concerns and propose changes to bills
 - c) To vote on bills individually
 - d) To conduct committee work

4. In the legislative process, what happens after a bill passes in one chamber (House or Senate)?
 - a) It becomes a law automatically.
 - b) It goes to the President for signature.
 - c) It moves to the other chamber for review.
 - d) It is sent to the Supreme Court.

5. What is required for a bill to pass in both the House and the Senate?
 - a) A majority vote in one chamber
 - b) A unanimous vote in both chambers
 - c) A majority vote in both chambers
 - d) A two-thirds majority vote in one chamber

