

Name _____

The Dynamic Duo: How the House and Senate Work Together to Pass a Bill

Short Answer

1. What is the purpose of committee work in the legislative process?
2. Describe the role of the President in the final stages of passing a bill.
3. Why is it necessary for both the House and the Senate to agree on the exact wording of a bill?
4. What happens if the President vetoes a bill, and how can Congress respond?
5. How does the legislative process resemble a relay race with different teams and stages?

