

Name _____

Nature's Symphony: A Sonnet on Earth's Beauty

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the main theme of the Sonnet poem "Nature's Symphony: A Sonnet on Earth's Beauty"?

- a) The importance of technology
- b) The beauty of the natural world and its significance
- c) The need to build more cities
- d) The value of indoor activities

2. How does the poem describe the birds in the natural world?

- a) As silent creatures
- b) As singing in harmony with other living things
- c) As noisy and disruptive
- d) As dangerous predators

3. What does the poem suggest about rivers?

- a) They are dry and lifeless
- b) They reflect the skies and flow eternally
- c) They are sources of pollution
- d) They are unimportant in nature

4. How does the poem characterize mountains?

- a) As insignificant and small
- b) As a testament to nature's grandeur
- c) As obstacles to be removed
- d) As easy to climb

5. What is the message conveyed by the poem about the natural world?

- a) Nature is unimportant and should be ignored
- b) Nature's beauty should be cherished, protected, and valued
- c) Nature is a source of danger and fear
- d) Nature is boring and unexciting

