

Name _____

Nature's Symphony: A Sonnet on Earth's Beauty

Short Answer

1. How does the poem describe the birds in the natural world, and what role do they play in the poem's theme?
2. What is the significance of rivers in the poem, and how are they described?
3. How are mountains characterized in the poem, and what message do they convey?
4. What does the poem suggest about the importance of protecting and valuing the natural world?
5. What emotions or qualities does the poem associate with nature's beauty?

