

Name _____

The Electronic Echo Chamber

Short Answer Key

1. InfoBusters hacked into InfoComs to expose government propaganda and provide alternative information.
2. The government responded with surveillance, threats, and imprisonment in an effort to suppress their dissent.
3. They used encrypted communication channels to ensure their messages remained private.
4. They believed that exposing the truth and challenging manipulated information were essential for restoring freedom and democracy.

