

Name _____

Michigan's Economic Engine: From Industry to Innovation

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What industry became synonymous with Detroit, earning it the nickname "Motor City"?
  - a) Aerospace
  - b) Healthcare
  - c) Automotive
  - d) Agriculture

2. Which automakers are collectively referred to as the "Big Three" in Michigan?
  - a) Toyota, Honda, and Nissan
  - b) Ford, General Motors, and Chrysler
  - c) Volkswagen, BMW, and Mercedes-Benz
  - d) Hyundai, Kia, and Subaru

3. How did Michigan diversify its economy to reduce its dependence on the automotive industry?
  - a) By investing solely in healthcare
  - b) By focusing only on agriculture
  - c) By investing in aerospace, information technology, and healthcare
  - d) By shutting down all manufacturing plants

4. What natural resources in Michigan support its agriculture and manufacturing sectors?
  - a) Natural gas and coal
  - b) Freshwater from the Great Lakes and fertile soil
  - c) Precious metals and gemstones
  - d) Oil reserves and salt deposits

5. Which sector of Michigan's economy is driven by the state's natural beauty and outdoor recreational opportunities?
  - a) Manufacturing
  - b) Information technology
  - c) Tourism and hospitality
  - d) Aerospace

