

Name _____

Ohio's Diverse Economy: From Agriculture to Innovation

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What crops is Ohio known for producing in its agricultural sector?
 - A) Rice and sugarcane
 - B) Corn, soybeans, and wheat
 - C) Cotton and peanuts
 - D) Oranges and grapefruits

2. Which city in Ohio has historically been associated with manufacturing and industrial development?
 - A) Cincinnati
 - B) Cleveland
 - C) Columbus
 - D) Dayton

3. What is the Cleveland Clinic known for?
 - A) Agricultural research
 - B) Financial services
 - C) Healthcare and medical research
 - D) Manufacturing machinery

4. Which city is a major hub for financial services and insurance companies in Ohio?
 - A) Cincinnati
 - B) Cleveland
 - C) Columbus
 - D) Toledo

5. Ohio's contributions to information technology, aerospace, and alternative energy industries reflect its focus on:
 - A) Healthcare
 - B) Agriculture
 - C) Technology and innovation
 - D) Transportation and logistics

