

Name _____

North Carolina's Diverse Economy: A Closer Look

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Which sector of North Carolina's economy is known for producing tobacco, sweet potatoes, and poultry?

- A) Manufacturing
- B) Research and Technology
- C) Agriculture and Farming
- D) Tourism and Hospitality

2. Where is the Research Triangle Park located?

- A) Charlotte
- B) Asheville
- C) Raleigh-Durham
- D) Greensboro

3. What is the primary industry in Charlotte, North Carolina?

- A) Agriculture
- B) Financial Services
- C) Tourism and Hospitality
- D) Healthcare and Life Sciences

4. Which natural feature of North Carolina attracts tourists and offers recreational activities?

- A) Lakes
- B) Deserts
- C) Mountains
- D) Tundras

5. What is the significance of the Port of Wilmington to North Carolina's economy?

- A) It is a major hub for technology companies.
- B) It facilitates international trade and connects the state to the global economy.
- C) It is a leading center for agricultural research.
- D) It hosts prestigious universities.

