

Name _____

Thomas Edison: Sparks of Innovation

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Where was Thomas Edison born?
 - a) New York City
 - b) Milan, Ohio
 - c) Menlo Park, New Jersey
 - d) London, England

2. What was one of Thomas Edison's earliest inventions that earned him a patent?
 - a) A light bulb
 - b) A phonograph
 - c) A device for morse code
 - d) A motion picture camera

3. What invention is Thomas Edison most famous for?
 - a) The phonograph
 - b) The motion picture camera
 - c) The incandescent light bulb
 - d) The alkaline storage battery

4. What was the significance of Thomas Edison's invention of the phonograph?
 - a) It revolutionized the way we generate electricity.
 - b) It brought music and entertainment to homes.
 - c) It improved telegraph communication.
 - d) It enhanced the quality of photography.

5. What was Thomas Edison's attitude towards failure?
 - a) He considered it a waste of time.
 - b) He never experienced failure.
 - c) He saw it as an opportunity to learn and improve.
 - d) He gave up after a single failure.

