

Name _____

Unlocking Equality: The Power of Education

Short Answer

1. Give an analogy from the essay that illustrates how education empowers individuals.
2. Name one important life skill mentioned in the essay that education teaches.
3. How does the essay describe a classroom in relation to education?
4. Explain the significance of education as mentioned in the essay's conclusion.
5. What does the essay suggest would happen without education in the analogy involving different types of flowers?

