

Name _____

Exploring Education in India

Short Answer Key

1. The stages of school education in India include primary education (grades 1-5), upper primary (grades 6-8), secondary (grades 9-10), and higher secondary (grades 11-12) education.
2. Regional languages play a significant role in primary education in India, where they are often used as the medium of instruction.
3. Two prestigious institutions in India known for higher education are the Indian Institutes of Technology (IITs) and the Indian Institutes of Management (IIMs).
4. Education is highly valued in Indian society because it is seen as a means to achieve social mobility, economic success, and personal growth.
5. The government is working on reforms to address challenges in India's education system, including improving access to quality education, updating curricula, and promoting inclusive education.

