

Name _____

Exploring Educational Buildings

Short Answer Questions

1. Explain the role of colleges and universities in providing higher education and the facilities commonly found on their campuses.
2. Describe the primary function of libraries in educational buildings and the resources they offer to the public.
3. Why is site selection an important consideration in the construction of educational buildings?
4. Provide examples of the types of exhibits or programs that museums and science centers may feature to educate visitors.
5. What is the significance of the final inspection stage in the construction of educational buildings?

