

Name _____

Inside Russia's Educational Journey

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What were the primary subjects taught in early Russian schools during the 10th century?
 - a) Advanced mathematics and physics
 - b) Religious studies, writing, and basic arithmetic
 - c) Ancient history and philosophy
 - d) Physical education and sports

2. During the tsarist era, who had limited access to formal education?
 - a) Nobility and clergy
 - b) Peasants
 - c) Merchants and traders
 - d) Foreign diplomats

3. Which educational system aimed to eliminate illiteracy and promote scientific advancements in Russia?
 - a) The Tsarist Education System
 - b) The Soviet Education System
 - c) The Post-Soviet Education System
 - d) The Byzantine Education System

4. What major changes occurred in Russia's education system after the dissolution of the Soviet Union?
 - a) Greater centralization and standardized curriculum
 - b) Greater autonomy for schools and a more flexible curriculum
 - c) A return to the Tsarist-era educational model
 - d) A focus on ideological indoctrination

5. Which level of education in Russia includes grades 5-9?
 - a) Primary education
 - b) Basic general education
 - c) Higher education
 - d) Secondary education

