

Name _____

Remorseful Reflections: An Elegy for Regret

Short Answer

1. How does the poem describe the feeling of regret and its impact on the protagonist?
2. What does the protagonist wish they could change about their past, as mentioned in the poem?
3. How does the poem convey the idea that forgiveness and righting one's wrongs can lead to healing?
4. What message does the poem convey about the nature of regrets and how to address them?
5. Why do you think the poem emphasizes the importance of finding peace despite regrets?

