

Name _____

Elephant Predators and Threats

Short Answer Key

1. Elephants protect their young by staying in herds and surrounding them.
2. Habitat loss makes it harder for elephants to find food and water.
3. Poaching is dangerous because elephants are hunted for their tusks.
4. Dust baths help elephants keep their skin clean and prevent insect bites.
5. People can protect elephants by supporting conservation efforts and following laws against poaching.

